

19 - Mrs. Maria Fitzgerald, 1912

The funeral of Mrs. Maria Fitzgerald who passed away at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at her home on Sixth Avenue was held this morning at 10 o'clock from the house and at 10:30 from the Catholic church. Rev. James Curtin of Brooklyn conducted the services. Mrs. Fitzgerald passed away peacefully of exhaustion following a long and painful illness. Of her four children, three were present at the funeral: her son Frank J. Fitzgerald and wife of Omaha, Neb.; and her daughters, Mrs. C. A. Sheridan, of Oswego, N. Y., and Miss Ella Fitzgerald, of this city. The other son, John from South Dakota, was not able to reach the city in time for the funeral. Mrs. Fitzgerald has lived a quiet, helpful life. She will be greatly missed by all who have found in her a friend and there are many of them.
