

Mrs. Fleming, 30, Dies Unexpectedly; Mother of Four

Funeral services were held here this afternoon at the Methodist church for Mrs. John J. Fleming of Grinnell, 30-year old mother of four children.

Mrs. Fleming died unexpectedly at a local hospital Friday. She had been admitted for surgery.

The Rev. W. F. Overhulser, Methodist pastor, conducted the rites and burial was in Hazelwood cemetery.

Music was by Mrs. Dolph Miller and Mrs. R. H. Auman. Mrs. Gerald Phipps and Mrs. Harold Rose were on the flower committee and pall bearers were Gerald Phipps, James Lynch, Clifford Thompson, Harold Rose, John Ditzler and Wm. Taylor.

Margaret Ann Rowe Fleming was born here April 21, 1923, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rowe. She spent her entire life in Grinnell with the exception of a few months in Marshalltown. She was graduated from Grinnell high school in 1941 and was married to John J. Fleming on May 26, 1941.

Surviving are her husband; four children, John 3, Patricia, 7, Marcia 5, and Daniel, 17 months; parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rowe of Grinnell; two sisters, Barbara Duncan of Grinnell and Jane Morton of Redwood City, Calif.; and three brothers, Charles of Seattle, Wash., and George and Dick of Grinnell. "Peggy" was a member of the Methodist church.
