

(Paul)

Wilma Foster services held on Wednesday

Wilma I. Foster, 62, of 932 Park St., Grinnell, died Sunday evening at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services for Mrs. Foster were held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home east side facility, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad officiating. Organist was Kathleen Heffner. Pallbearers were William G. Doud, Robert Henderson, Ronald McKeag, Robert Modlin, Marlyn L. Olson, and Gilmore Robbins Jr. Honorary pallbearers were William Davis, John Doud, Larry Osland, and Webb Wallace. Flower bearers were Jo Ellen Gibbons and Dorothy Sisco.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of Pete and Hazel Doud, she was born May 7, 1916, in Grinnell. She attended rural school near her home and later attended secondary school at Newburg.

On Oct. 8, 1934, she was married to Wilbur Elliott at Newton. Following their marriage, they lived in Grinnell before returning to Newton. While living in Newton, Mrs. Foster was employed by the Maytag Co. Following her husband's death, she was married to Paul Foster on Aug. 15, 1968, in Omaha, Neb. The couple lived in Des Moines, later moving to Grinnell.

Survivors include her children, Mrs. Clyde (Irene) Brant of Grinnell, Mrs. Samuel (Barbara) Kizer of Carson, Calif., Mrs. Joe (Mary Kay) Vaughn of Cedar Falls, Roger Lindell of Millersport, Ohio, and Mrs. Russell (Marilyn)

Faulkers of Doughtery; three step-children, Mrs. Linda Watts of Marshalltown and Mrs. Robert (Rosemary) Owens and David P. Foster, both of Colfax; 18 grandchildren; seven step-grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; one brother, Virgil Doud of Grinnell; and three sisters, Mrs. Richard (Dorothy) Olson of Grinnell, Mrs. Gerald (Arlene) Deppe of Kellogg, and Mrs. Gerald (Doris) Flanagan, also of Kellogg. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.