

Mary R. Fowley, 77

Mary Rose (Hunter) Fowley, 77, of Montezuma, died Sunday, June 23, at Montezuma Nursing & Rehabilitation Center from cancer.

A private graveside service was held on Friday, June 28, at the Jackson Township Cemetery at Montezuma. Watts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Mary was born at Davenport, and lived at San Diego, Calif., where she was graduated from San Diego High School. In 1974, she moved to Tel Aviv, Israel, where she lived for seven years. She moved to Montezuma in 1992.

Mary was an actress and director who worked in both San Diego and New York. In the 1950's, she hosted a cooking show on television which ran for two years.

Mary is survived by her two children, Gretchen Fowley of Montezuma, and Douglas Fowley of Geneva, Switzerland; a step-son, Kim Fowley of Redlands, Calif.; a granddaughter; and two great-grandchildren.

The family asks that all memorial donations be made to the Montezuma Volunteer Fire Department in her name as her grandfather. Steven Alexander Hunter, was Montezuma's first fire chief.
