

(Herbert)

Nora Helen Foxworthy BC Jan. 7, 1998

Funeral services were Saturday morning, Jan. 3, at Smith Funeral Home, Victor, for Nora Helen Foxworthy, 86, of Friendship Manor of Grinnell. She died Wednesday, Dec. 31, 1997. Dr. Herbert H. Foxworthy Jr. of Boone officiated. Organist Jane Alexander accompanied Dr. Paul Williamson, who sang "Whispering Hope" and "In the Garden."

Services were also held Monday morning, Jan. 5, at The Church of the Nazarene in Brazil, Ind., with the Rev. Al Dicer and Dr. Herbert H. Foxworthy Jr. officiating. Interment was in Clear View Cemetery, Brazil, Ind.

Helen was born on Feb. 20, 1911, at Lerne, Ill., to William and Sophia Morris Mason. The family moved to Brazil, Ind., where she attended schools.

On June 28, 1928, she was married to Herbert H. Foxworthy in Brazil, and they were parents of two children, Herbert and Barbara. Helen worked for many years as a housekeeping supervisor at the Holiday Inn in Indianapolis, Ind. The family moved to Victor in 1978. While living in Brazil, she was a member of The Church of the Nazarene.

She was preceded in death by three sisters, Burtress Brilla Hargett, Elsie Olive McGranahan and Jessie Alma McVey.

Survivors include her husband, Herbert Foxworthy of Victor, Her son, Herbert H. Foxworthy Jr. of Boone; her daughter, Barbara Williamson of rural Granger; 11 grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

Smith Funeral Home in Victor was in charge of arrangements.