

Loyd Freeborn

Loyd Freeborn, 92, of Rockford, Ill., formerly of Grinnell, died Friday, Nov. 5, at the home of his daughter in Rockford.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell, with the Rev. Dan Ogata officiating. Pallbearers were his grandchildren, Bev Nut, Terry, Denny and John Freeborn, Deb Arment, Steve Lender, Cindy Saiva, Kim Turner and Karla Ehrler. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

He was the son of William and Matilda Daniels Freeborn and was born Jan. 4, 1901, near Exline. He attended rural school and assisted the family with farm work.

He was married to Cora Mae Clinkenbeard May 11, 1919, at her parents' home near Exline. The couple moved to Grinnell and farmed near Montezuma, later returning to Appanoose County to farm. In 1935 the family moved to the Grinnell area where Mr. Freeborn farmed and worked as a carpenter.

Surviving are one son, Eugene of Grinnell; three daughters, Virginia Blackwell of Grinnell, Eloise Lender of Rockford and Darlene Turner of Nichols; 10 grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; one brother, Cleland of Montezuma; and one sister, Cloy Hockey, also of Montezuma.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife; one son, Russell; two grandsons; one great-granddaughter; three brothers, Everett, Lester and Pearly; and two sisters, Zella Mikels and Cecile Probasco.

H-R
November 8, 1993