Margaret Frisbie Dies Sun. At Home On North Park St.

Mrs. Margaret Frisbie, 83, Grinnell, widow of A. Lowrie Frisbie, succumbed Sunday morning at her home at 1703 Park St.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the First Congregational church with the Rev. Robert D. Dewey officiating. Friends may call at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home.

The daughter of Frank and Katherine Sweeney Scammon, she was born on Dec. 25th, 1877, at Osage. She was graduated from the public schools of Northwood and with the class of 1902 at Grinnell College.

For a number of years she taught in the Northwood schools and on Oct. 28th, 1908, at Northwood, was united in marriage with A. Lowrie Frisbie.

They came to Grinnell 54 years ago where Mr. Frisbie was editor of the Grinnell Herald. In later years he became a partner in the Grinnell Herald-Register and also served as its editor.

Her father, Frank Scammon, was also in the newspaper business and published a paper at Northwood for many years.

Mrs. Frisbie was a member of the First Congregational church, P.E.O., and the Entre Nous Club.

Survivors include her son, Alfred L. Frisbie, Jr., who is associated with the Omaha (Neb.) World-Herald; two grandsons and one granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by her husband in March of 1958; her parents; a daughter, Katherine Veronica; and one sister and one brother.
