

In Memory.

Joseph Paul Fryar, second son of Sherman R. and Olive M. Fryar, was born October 4, 1907, and died June 27, 1909, aged 1 year, 8 months and 25 days.

Your home is in its first great sorrow. Little Paul, who was the last to make home radiant with his presence and prattle, the last to lisp the name of "Ma ma and Papa," was also the first to pass to silence and from sight. The body that less than two weeks ago seemed so strong and vigorous, grew frail from day to day and his eye-lids were kissed down in death at that happy period in life when neither sorrow nor care had left a scar, and where your memories can dwell on nothing save pleasant recollections. You fain would have him back, but doubt not that at some time and in some way all will be made right.

Rev. McDonald, of Poland, was in charge of the services and interment was at Garrard Chapel, June 30, 1909. To the neighbors and friends who assisted in any way the family extends their deepest gratitude.

Those little lips so sweet to kiss
Are closed for ever now.
Those sparkling eyes that shone so bright
Beneath that pearly brow.
That little heart that beat so high
Free from all care and gloom
Are hidden now from those he loved
Beneath the silent tomb.
