Larinda D. Fuller, 37, of Newton died of cancer Thursday, Nov. 25, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Grinnell Christian Church, with the Rev. John Epperson officiating. Music will be provided by organist Jolene Jones, pianist Lorna Lang and vocalist Collette Hill. Pallbearers will be Mike Anderson, Danny Carroll, Jerry Lang, Terry Lowry, Dave Pearce and Scott Robertson.

Burial will be in Newton Union Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home of Grinnell in charge of arrangements. Memorials in Mrs. Fuller's name may be made to Skiff Medical Center.

The daughter of Eugene and Shirley Hansen Babcock, she was born Oct. 31, 1956, in Cedar Rapids. She moved with her family to Storm Lake and later to Ames. She was a 1975 graduate of Ames High School. In 1977 she earned a degree in respiratory therapy from Des Moines Area Community College.

She was married to Roger Fuller June 13, 1981. They lived in Moberly, Mo., and later worked as missionaries in Austria. They returned to Iowa and lived in Nevada and Iowa City before moving to Newton in 1989. She worked as a registered respiratory therapist at Mary Greeley Hospital in Ames, University Hospitals in Iowa City and Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

She was a member of the Newton Community Theater and the Grinnell Christian Church, where she taught Sunday school and was a member of the choir.

Surviving are her husband, Roger of Newton; two sons, Owen and Seth, both of Newton; her parents; one sister, Lisa Moss of Crocker, Mo.; and two brothers, Tim Babcock of Gilbert and Jeremy Babcock of Ames.
