Sheldon Fuller services today

Sheldon Fuller, 77, of Marysville, Calif., died Thursday evening in Marysville. 4-1-76

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating. Organist will be Mrs. Donald J. Renaud, and pallbearers will be Richard Humphrey, Raymond A. McDowell, Chester Wallis, Michael Wallis, Calvin Wiseman and Kevin Wiseman. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The son of Porter Y. and Bertha Foster Fuller, he was born April 30, 1898, east of Newburg. He attended Chester Center School and was graduated from Grinnell High School. He later received bachelor's and master's degrees from Iowa State University. He served with the U.S. Army R.O.T.C. during World War I while in school.

On Oct. 19, 1921, he was married to Grace Hadley in Grinnell. The couple had one daughter. Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller farmed in Chester Township. Mr. Fuller was later associated with Traveler's Life Insurance Co. in Washington, D.C., for 30 years as a broker. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller moved to Marysville upon retirement.

He was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church in Marysville, Marysville Peach Tree Country Club, and Marysville B.P.O. Elks Lodge No. 783.

He is survived by his wife, Grace. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Elizabeth Ann Fuller, who died in 1930 at the age of 5; his parents; and one sister, Mrs. Chester (Barbara Ann) Humphrey.
