

H-R March 15, 1979
Gallagher rites held

Daryl Eugene Gallagher, 61, of Newhall died suddenly Tuesday, March 6, at his home.

Services were held March 9 at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Newhall, with burial at St. Patrick's and St. Paul's Cemetery, Watkins.

Born Feb. 10, 1918, at Brooklyn, he was married to the former Irene Lang of Brooklyn on Aug. 10, 1946. They farmed for six years near Brooklyn before moving to Newhall.

Mr. Gallagher was employed by Walnut Grove Products for 26 years. He was a veteran of World War II. He and his wife also ran a restaurant in Newhall for 12 years.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Gene of Minneapolis, Minn.; and Steven of Newhall; one daughter, Carol of Maquoketa; two granddaughters; two brothers, Cyril of Grinnell and Don of Strawberry Point, and a sister, Mrs. Richard (Dorothy) Claeys of Belle Plaine. He was preceded in death by his parents and two children.

Obituaries

Brooklyn
Chronicle

Daryl Gallagher

1979

Daryl Eugene Gallagher, 61, of Newhall died suddenly Tuesday, March 6, at his home.

Born February 10, 1918, at Brooklyn, he was married to the former Irene Long on August 10, 1946. They farmed near Brooklyn for six years before moving to Newhall.

A World War II veteran, he was employed by Walnut Grove Products for 26 years.

He and his wife operated a restaurant in Newhall for 12 years.

Survivors include his wife, two sons, Gene of Minneapolis and Steven of Newhall; one daughter, Carol of Maquoketa; two granddaughters; two brothers, Cyril of Grinnell and Don of Strawberry Point, and one sister, Mrs. Richard (Dorothy) Claeys, Belle Plaine. His parents and two children preceded him in death.

Services were held Friday, March 9 at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Newhall with burial at St. Patrick's and St. Paul's Cemetery at Watkins.