

Old Resident Of Lynnville 1933 Passes Away

Lynnville, Ia., March 7, Special:
Mary Beals Gause, daughter of Elizabeth and Thomas Beals, was born in Green county, Tenn., January 13, 1852, and died at her home in Lynnville, Feb. 26, 1933, at the advanced age of 81 years, one month and 14 days.

An attack of paralysis left her an invalid for more than ten years. It deprived her of speech, but through it all she was patient and had a smile for everyone. She suffered much during the last few months.

When a year old she moved with her parents in a covered wagon to Keokuk county, near Richmond, Iowa; in 1866 they moved into this neighborhood.

She was a birthright member of the Friends Church, and took an active part until she was afflicted.

On January 21, 1872, she was united in marriage to Oliver Gause and to this union were born five children. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn their loss, two daughters, Mrs. Ora Hathaway of Glenwood Springs, Colo., and Mrs. Arno Latham of Searsboro, three sons, Linnaeus, Elmer and Lester Gause, all of Lynnville, a brother, Jerry Beals, and sister Lydia Gause both of Lynnville, and brother, David Beals, of Liberal, Kans., seventeen grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and a host of friends.

Pallbearers were Lester Gause, Lory Gause, Floyd Latham, Lawrence Madill, Arton Gause and Lester Bunnham, grandsons of the deceased.

Services were at the home in charge of Rev. Moses T. Mendenhall, assisted by our local minister, Rev. Giles Youngquist. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Charles Potter, Mrs. Harvey Gause, Mrs. Will Ailee and Harlan Meredith with Mrs. A. T. Gifford at the piano. Songs were "Safe In the Arms of Jesus", "Tell Mother I'll Be There" and "Going Down the Valley." Burial was in the Friends cemetery east of town.
