OBITUARY

April 1, 1954
Nellie Mae Gause

Nellie Mae Gause was born April 11, 1876, near Searsboro, and passed on to her reward from the Stafford nursing home, Oskaloosa, March 20, 1954, at the age of 77 years, 11 months and 9 days. For the past 42 years she had been a resident in and near Lynnville.

She was united in marriage to Linneaus T. Gause Feb. 16, 1898, at the home of her parents near Searsboro. They observed their Golden Wedding in 1948 in the Lynnville Friends church.

Nellie Mae Gause was an active and faithful worker in the Lynnville Friends church of which she became a member by request on Aug. 5, 1916. She taught for years in the primary department of the Sunday school and was Cradle Roll superintendent and superintendent of the home department at various times. She and her husband were very thoughtful of the sick and visited and cared for such in a most acceptable way.

She is survived by her husband, Linneaus T. Gause, Lynnville (now in Stafford nursing home) a daughter, Mrs. Lester (Velma) Burnham, Milwaukee, Wis., two grandsons, John Thomas Burnham, Great Lakes naval training base and Purl Ray Burnham, Milwaukee, three brothers, Will S. Bailey, Carroll, John Ora Bailey, Portland, Ore. and VanBuren Bailey, near Grinnell; one sister, Mrs. Loring (Laura) Stanley, Dallas, Texas. Two sisters died in infancy.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, March 23, in the Lynnville Friends church in charge of Rev. Carl D. Byrd assisted by Rev. Glenwood Stanley. Mrs. Will Alee and Mrs. Harvey Gause sang, "In The Garden" and "Going Down The Valley." They were accompanied by Mrs. Carrie Quire.

Mrs. Ozro Dearing and Mrs. Ray VerSteeg were in charge of floral offerings. Pallbearers were Harvey Brown, Ernest Graham, Earl Macy, Harold Macy, Marshall Meredith and Vern Stanley. Interment was in the Friends cemetery.
