

Kimberly Gersdorf

Kimberly Gersdorf, 33, of 1520 Prairie St., Grinnell, died Sunday, March 21, at her home.

Grinnell police received a 911 call at 3:22 p.m., and upon arrival they found her body in the garage, an apparent suicide.

"Investigation into the matter at this time indicates no foul play was involved," said Sgt. Randy Hanssen.

A memorial service was conducted Thursday at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma. The body was cremated, and burial of the ashes was at Jackson Township Cemetery.

A memorial fund has been established.

H-R
March 25, 1993

H-R

March 27, 1993

Kimberly Gersdorf

Kimberly Gersdorf, 33, of 1520 Prairie St., Grinnell, died Sunday, March 21, at her home.

A memorial services was conducted Thursday at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with Fred Buser, pastor of the Lynnville Church of God, officiating. The body was cremated, and burial of the ashes was in Jackson Township Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Newton Animal Rescue League and Humane Society.

The daughter of Arthur and Patricia Jordan Craver, she was born Jan. 3, 1960, in Grinnell. She was a 1978 graduate of Montezuma High School.

She was married to Dirk Gersdorf Aug. 29, 1987, in Union Township southwest of Montezuma. They made their home in Grinnell.

Surviving are her husband, her parents and two brothers, Jordan Craver of Newton and Kenneth Craver of Montezuma.