

Mrs. Elizabeth Gifford Passes Away Sunday

6-4-1935

Mrs. Elizabeth Gifford died at 4:30 o'clock Sunday morning at her home here. Death was due to chronic carditis and came after an illness of three weeks. Funeral services were held this afternoon from the Estel funeral home at Marshalltown with the Rev. W. R. Yard, pastor of the First Baptist church of Marshalltown, in charge of the service. Interment was in the Riverside cemetery with the Order of Eastern Star in charge of the service.

Mrs. Gifford was born Elizabeth Kennedy, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kennedy, at Fort Madison, Sept. 7, 1859. She went to Marshalltown about forty years ago and was married soon after her arrival there to Albert E. Gay, a well known realtor of that city. Mr. Gay died and about fifteen years ago she was married to F. H. Gifford, well known hotel operator in this city, and Grinnell has been her home since.
