L. C. Gilfillan Was Pioneer Resident

Funeral services for L. C. Gilfillan were held from the late home at 101 Sixth avenue Friday afternoon, Jan. 23, conducted by Rev. A. B. Cadwell of the Methodist church. The pallbearers were nephews: Martin Peterson, Frank Easton, Elgin Hite, Arthur Shannon, Wilbur Harvey, and Judson Princehouse.

Out of town relatives attending the services were Mrs. Oren Wheeler, Des Moines; Mr. and Mrs. Orson Shannon and son, Marshalltown; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hite, Gilman; Frank Easton, Creston; Mr. and Mrs. Pearlle Princehouse and daughter, Newburg; Mr. and Mrs. Judson Princehouse, Toledo; Mrs. M. R. Princehouse and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harvey, Montour; Elgin Hite and mother, Mrs. Nutz, Des Moines; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peterson, Laurens; Charles Harris and son, LeGrand; Harry Hulin, Mrs. Ida Elliott, and Mrs. Katherine Richardson all of Gilman.

Lafayette Coe Gilfillan was born in Peoria county, Ill., on July 28, 1856 and passed away Jan. 21, 1931, at the age of 74 years, five months and 23 days. On Sept. 23, 1877 he married Emma Frances Princehouse at Lawn Ridge, Ill. To this union were born four daughters, Minnie Agnes, Mamie Edna, Anna Bell, and Mary Frances, of whom two survive, Mrs. Anna Bell Carruthers, and Mrs. Mary Frances Thompson. One grandson, Lester Edwin Harris, and Mrs. Gilfillan also survive him.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilfillan came to Poweshiek county in 1880 and have made their home here continuously. One of the incidents in Mr. Gilfillan's life, the Grinnell cyclone, he remembered vividly.
