

Former Episcopal priest dies in Texas

The Rev. Robert Gilliam, Colleyville, Texas, priest-in-charge of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Grinnell, and rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Newton, from 1960 to 1966, died recently in Colleyville. no date

He had served as rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Cedar Falls, after leaving the Newton-Grinnell parish.

At the time of his death he was serving the church on a part-time basis and also was engaged in the real-estate business.

Survivors include his wife, Coke, and three children, Steve, Robin and Laura. Memorials may be sent to Mrs. Gilliam, 4106 Greenway Court, Colleyville, Texas 76034.

H-72 January 17, 1983