

H-R February 4, 1988
James Glass rites conducted

James B. Glass, 85, of rural Brooklyn died Saturday, Jan. 30, at St. Francis Manor.

Funeral services were at 10:30 a.m. Monday at the McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home in Victor, with the Rev.

Randy Battey, pastor of the Victor Baptist Church, officiating. Organist was Dixie Battey, and vocalist was Ed McAdams. Pallbearers were Wayne Gray, Don Kriegel, Dexter MacBride, Larry Neuhaus, Don Rohrer and Loren Roudabush. Burial was in Victor Memorial Cemetery.

The son of Byron and Ethel Rohrer Glass, he was born on March 6, 1902, in Chelsea. He was raised in the Victor area where he attended school.

On Dec. 22, 1932, he was married to Grace Gray at Columbus, Neb., and the couple farmed in the Brooklyn area.

Mr. Glass is survived by a daughter, Carole Robey of Victor; three sons, James and Jerry of Brooklyn and David of Cedar Rapids; 14 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, one grandson and one brother, Bert.