

Rites held for Mr. Goehring

H-R February 13, 1986

Vernon A. Goehring, 70, of Montezuma, formerly of Grinnell, died Friday, Feb. 7, at the New Sharon Care Center in New Sharon.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Monday at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. Warren James officiating.

Pallbearers were Russ Sadler, Don Crawford, Thurman Davis, Verl Garwood, George Hansen and Charles Boeding. Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery.

The son of Henry and Erma Bargman, he was born on Aug. 2, 1915, at St. Louis, Mo. He was married to Dorothy McMahon in Putnam County, Mo., on Oct. 21, 1939. They lived in Grinnell before moving to Montezuma.

Mr. Goehring worked for the Maytag Co. in Newton for 27 years before retiring in 1977. He was also active in Boy Scouting.

Survivors include his children, Edamae Metz of Galesburg, Ill., Janice Barnard of Grinnell, Carl of Montezuma, Ron of Clarksville, Tenn., and Nancy Goehring of Des Moines; seven grandchildren and several stepbrothers and stepsisters.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Dorothy; and one son, Larry.