

Mrs. Goldsmith rites pending

Ruth Goldsmith, 87, a native of Searsboro, died Friday, Aug. 26, in a Napa, Calif., nursing home.

Memorial services are pending. The body was cremated, and burial of the ashes will be at City View Cemetery, Salem, Ore. Memorial contributions may be made to the Napa Valley Alzheimer's Support Group, P.O. box 3806, Napa, Calif. 94558.

She was born May 17, 1901, in Searsboro, the daughter of Ada and Harry Riiter. She was raised and educated in Grinnell where she was married to Sam Tucker in 1921. Mr. Tucker died in 1935.

In 1937, she moved to California and entered the retail fashion business. She was married to Clarence Smith in Salem, Ore., in 1943. Mr. Smith died in 1956. She then moved to Marin County, Calif., and in 1983 was married to Jerome Goldsmith in Novato, Calif. She retired from the fashion business in 1976.

Surviving are her husband; one daughter, Barbara Fenston, of Livermore, Calif.; one sister, Allene Seiberling of Fairfield, Calif.; two grandsons; and one great-grandson.

H-R
September 8, 1988