GRACE GOODMAN

Grace Erma McKinley was born August 31, 1900 at Millersburg. She was the daughter of James and Eva (Sieverd) McKinley.

April 4, 1984
Grace grew to womanhood in the North English area where she attended public high school. After her graduation she taught rural school in Iowa County, near North English.

On December 17, 1919, she was united in marriage to Alfred Goodman at North English. After their marriage they resided in South Dakota for several years. From 1944 to 1951 they resided at Ladora. For many years they engaged in farming in the Millersburg area. In 1951 Mr. and Mrs. Goodman established their home in Cheyenne, Wyo. In April of 1983 they moved to Crystal City, Tex. and it was here that Mrs. Goodman passed away on Monday, Mar. 19, 1984.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband, Alfred, this past December, one infant son - Kenneth Leroy, two grandchildren and three sisters and two brothers.

Mrs. Goodman is survived by her five children - Robert of Glendale, Ariz., Dorothy, Mrs. Joe Hicks of Cheyenne, Mary Jean Hill of Phoenix, Ariz., Lois, Mrs. Richard Crews of Littleton, Colo. and Myrna Goodeman of Crystal City, Tex. Also surviving are 11 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Services for Mrs. Goodman were held March 23 at the McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home in Victor. Officiating were Rev. Terry Tareila, pastor of the Victor Baptist Church, and Mrs. Goodman's son-in-law Richard Crews of Littleton, Colo.

Mrs. William Alexander of Victor accompanied Mr. Edward McAdam of Victor as he sang "Ivory Palaces" and "Face to Face".

In care of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Smith of Brooklyn.

Concluding services and burial were held at the Millersburg Cemetery with Les Shull of Ladora, Harold Tanner of Ladora, Arthur Blome, Melvin Smith and Ted Bohstedt of Victor and Marvin Cordes of Guernsey serving as casket bearers.
