

Rural Lynnville Man Dies In Michigan

1172 01 71
Funeral services were held Tuesday, Nov. 23, at the Sully Christian Reformed Church for Wiebe Goodyke, 55, of rural Lynnville, who died suddenly Saturday at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Rev. Paul Bakker, pastor of the church, officiated at the services. Burial was in Sully Cemetery.

The son of Johannes and Sadie Spoelstra Goodyke, Mr. Goodyke was born Jan. 13, 1916 at Peoria. In Sept. 4, 1940, he married Freda Vander Will at Sully.

Survivors include his wife; four sons—Marvin of Sully, Melvin of Westover, Mass., and Verlin and Keith at home; a daughter, Mrs. Kassel (Beverly) Rozendaal of Sully; two granddaughters; and nine brothers and sisters—Cornelius and Henry of Pella; Mrs. Gerrit J. (Tena) Roose of Peoria, Mrs. Albert (Charlotte) Beyer of Grand Rapids, Mich., Peter of Sully; Adiana Goodyke of Palos Heights, Ill., Jacob of Harvey, Mrs. Joel (Johanna) Spykerman of Holland, Mich., and Mrs. Wilbur (Louise) Nikkel of Prairie City.