

Margaret Gunderson

Margaret Gunderson, 73, of 311 N. Elm St., Gilman, died Saturday, April 8, at her home.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Strand Lutheran Church in Dunbar, with the Rev. Ann Webb officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

The daughter of Bertram and Carrie Selland Ingebritson, she was born July 2, 1915, at Dunbar. She was a graduate of Dunbar High School.

She was married to Justin M. Gunderson Aug. 9, 1933, and the couple farmed in the Gilman area until moving to Green Mountain in 1957. They operated the telephone exchange there for 12 years, returning to Gilman in 1969. Mrs. Gunderson was employed at Holland Plastics in Gilman until her retirement in 1976.

She was a member of Strand Lutheran Church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mary Jo Hayes and Janet Johnson, both of Gilman; seven grandsons; 10 great-grandchildren; one sister, Gladys Radloff of Conrad; and a brother, Carroll Ingebritson of Marshalltown. She was preceded in death by her husband, a sister and four brothers. H-R Apr. 13, 1989