
Sidney W. Gustafson

Sidney W. Gustafson, 72, of 1132 Ann St., Grinnell, died Sunday, Feb. 3, at Grinnell General Hospital.

The body has been donated to the University of Iowa Medical School. A visitation was conducted Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home.

Memorials in Mr. Gustafson's name may be made to St. Francis Manor or to Camp Courageous and may be sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box 368, Grinnell 50112.

He was born March 7, 1918, at Odebolt and graduated from Kiron High School. He later attended business college in Des Moines.

He was married to Lenore DeBondt July 15, 1939. The couple moved to Grinnell in 1950. Mr. Gustafson owned and operated the Rex Cigar Store and later worked in the feed business. In 1976 he became co-publisher of the Poweshiek County Pennysaver.

He was a member of the I.O.O.F. Lodge in Grinnell, the Grinnell Area Chamber of Commerce and Main Street Grinnell. He also served as a member of the board of directors of St. Francis Manor.

Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Suzan Hill of Lawrence, Kan.; one son, Steven of Grinnell; four grandchildren; and one brother. He was preceded in death by his parents and 10 brothers and sisters.

H-R February 7, 1981