

Betty Guthrie rites today

H-R April 14, 1983

A 2

Betty Guthrie, 67, of Searsboro died Monday afternoon, April 11, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Harry Linnenbrink of St. Mary's Catholic Church officiating. Organist will be Kathleen Heffner, and pallbearers will be Michael Dunsbergen, William Dunsbergen, James Evans, Marcus Guthrie, David Latham, Charles Smith and Kelly Smith.

Burial will be at the I.O.O.F. Cemetery at Searsboro.

The daughter of John William and Millie Mae LaGrange Grubb, she was born May 3, 1915, at Grinnell. She attended school here and later worked for the Morrison-Shults Glove Factory.

On Feb. 14, 1938, she was married to Murray S. Mayne in Newton. The couple lived in Searsboro, where she worked for Fudge's Grocery and McDowell's Cafe. Mr. Mayne died on June 7, 1944, and she continued to live in Searsboro where she purchased the cafe.

She was married to James Guthrie Sr. on Aug. 6, 1967, in Grinnell. The couple continued to live in Searsboro.

Mrs. Guthrie is survived by her children, Sue Smith of Searsboro, Maxine Mayne of Des Moines, Peggy Dunsbergen of Newton and Judith Watkins of West Alice, Wis.; 11 grandchildren; seven stepgrandchildren; two great-grandchildren; one step-great-grandchild; a brother, Douglas L. Grubb of Grinnell; and a sister, Wilma Jones of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her first husband and a sister, Alma Iosbaker.