

BC June 15, 1988

ARNOLD GWIN

Arnold Gwin, 82, retired farmer, died June 13, 1988, at Grinnell General Hospital, Grinnell, after a brief illness.

Surviving are his wife, Marie; four sons, Wayne of Sigourney, Wendal of Victory, Larry of Brooklyn and Evan of Marengo; four daughters, Marilyn Baustian of Deep River, Linda Bryan of Montezuma, Juanita Stanford of Williamsburg and Janet Gwin of Montezuma; a sister, Margaret Reedy of Downey, Calif.; 20 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Services were set for 11 a.m. Wednesday at McAninch-Fremming's in Victor. Burial: Guernsey Cemetery. Memorials to Guernsey United Methodist Church.

BC June 22, 1988

ARNOLD GWIN

Arnold Gwin, 82, of Guernsey, died June 13, 1988, at the Grinnell General Hospital, Grinnell, Ia.

The son of Jacob R. and Mary Brenneman Gwin, he was born March 19, 1906, at Victor, Ia. He attended school at the Victor School System.

On April 3, 1931, he was married to Marie Mullen, in Newton, Ia. Arnold lived south of Victor where he farmed. They moved to Guernsey in 1933 and continued to farm in the Guernsey-Deep River area. He retired in 1980. Arnold liked to read and enjoyed all sports activities, especially baseball and basketball. He served on the Guernsey School board for several years and was the sexton of the Guernsey Cemetery for several years.

He is survived by his wife, Marie Gwin of Guernsey; four sons, Wayne of Sigourney, Wendall of Victor, Larry of Brooklyn, and Evan of Marengo; four daughters, Mrs. Lorraine (Marilyn) Baustian of Deep River; Mrs. Terry (Linda) Bryan of Montezuma, Mrs. Chris (Juanita) Stanford of Williamsburg, and Janet Gwin of Montezuma. There are 20 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren and one sister, Margaret Reedy of Downey, Calif.

He was preceeded in death by his parents, one brother, Clarence in 1931, one granddaughter, an infant, Wanda Gwin in 1958, a half-brother Paul Fry and a half-sister Esther Stahl.