

MR October 27, 1999

Glenn Ray Haines

Glenn Ray Haines, 58, of Grinnell died Oct. 16, 1999 at University of Iowa Hospitals in Iowa City.

His funeral was Oct. 20 at Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell and he was buried in West Liberty Cemetery in rural Searsboro.

Mr. Haines was born March 22, 1941 in Oskaloosa to Derrel and Rachel Vought Haines. He was educated in Oskaloosa and raised in Mahaska and Poweshiek Counties. On July 1, 1961 he married Kay Selle in Newton.

He worked at Maytag Dairy Farm and then farmed for eight years in rural Newton and Baxter. He moved to rural Grinnell where he farmed for nine years. Most recently, he was a truck driver for Farm Hand, Inc. of Grinnell.

He was a 27-year resident of this area. Mr. Haines belonged to the American Quarterhorse Association, the Iowa Quarterhorse Association and the Iowa Texas Longhorn Association.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Merle Haines.

He is survived by his wife, Kay Haines, Grinnell; two sons, Ken Haines and D.J. Haines of Grinnell; two grandchildren, Stephanie Marie Haines and Carson Joe Haines.

Also surviving are a brother, Jerry Haines of Oskaloosa and six sisters, Beth Rickerd of Newton; Edna Carlo, Kae Wittich, Rose Mary Legg, Linda Haltom and Marcena Bennett, all of Des Moines.

Memorials are being accepted in Mr. Haines' name.

Glenn Ray Haines

Glenn Ray Haines, 58, of Grinnell died Saturday, Oct. 16, at University Hospitals in Iowa City.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. George Salvane, pastor of the Montezuma Presbyterian Church, officiating. Casket bearers were Ken, D.J., Jerry and Jeff Haines; Don Grunhaupt; Richard Lowry and Ron Osborn. Honorary bearers were Larry Kline and Grant Rooda. Burial was in West Liberty Cemetery, rural Searsboro.

He was born March 22, 1941, in Montezuma to Darrel and Rachel Vought Haines. He was raised in Poweshiek and Mahaska counties and received his education in Oskaloosa.

He worked for the Ruby Fur Farm northeast of Oskaloosa and later the Maytag Dairy Farms in rural Newton.

He was married to Sharon Kay Sille July 1, 1961, in Newton. He then farmed for several years in the Newton and Baxter areas before moving to rural Grinnell where the couple farmed for nine years. Mr. Haines was a truck driver for Farmhand Inc.

He was a member of the American Quarter Horse Association, the Iowa Quarter Horse Association and the Iowa Texas Longhorn Association.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Kenneth Dean and Darrel Joe "D.J.," both of Grinnell; two grandchildren; one brother, Jerry of Oskaloosa; and six sisters, Beth Rickerd of Newton and Edna Carlo, Kae Wittich, Rose Mary Legg, Linda Haltom and Marcena Bennett, all of Des Moines.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Merle.

A Glenn R. Haines Memorial Fund has been established.