

Bob Haines was of a singularly likeable nature. He made friends readily. He attracted them by the brilliance of his intellect and the warmth of his heart. No one ever called him Robert Haines. It was always "Bob" and as the word went about Grinnell that "Bob" Haines was dead many old friends, who had not seen him for years, felt the heavy hand of sorrow.

Besides his mother he is survived by five brothers and sisters, Mrs. W. G. Ray of Grinnell, Mrs. F. I. Herriott of Des Moines, Dr. James Haines of Stillwater, Minn., Charles Haines of Denver, and Austin P. Haines of Minneapolis.

Burial was in Hazelwood yesterday afternoon in the family lot. A brief funeral service was held at the grave conducted by Rev. E. W. Cross, who spoke briefly. A quartet consisting of Fred Morrison, Dr. O. F. Parish, Milton Dieterich and D. E. Peck sang.

Bearers were Professor Herriott of Des Moines, Dr. Haines of Stillwater, Austin Haines of Minneapolis and A. F. and Will Hill of Grinnell and W. G. Ray.

Coming from Des Moines to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Byram, Mrs. Ben Moulton, Miss Amy Byram and Mr. Frank S. Dunshee.
