

Former Laurel Resident Dies

LAUREL (Special)—Word
1/25/73
has been received here of the death of Fred W. Hainke, 80, a former Jasper County resident who died Jan. 25 in Freeport, Ill., where he had lived since 1921.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hainke, he was born Oct. 23, 1891, on a farm near Laurel. He was married to Grace Pearson of Mitchellville July 4, 1917. The couple lived on a farm near Laurel until 1921 when they moved to Freeport, where Mr. Hainke was employed by the Journal Standard daily newspaper for 20 years.

He was preceded in death by his wife Grace, who died in 1965, and a son, Marvin. He is survived by two sons and four grandsons of Freeport, and three sisters, Mrs. Nellie Fuller of State Center, Mrs. Florence Fuller of Marshalltown, Mrs. Mabel Ingraham of Laurel. Mrs. Ingraham was unable to attend the services.