Hilda Hall, 80, services held on Thursday

4-6-78
Hilda Hall, 80, of Malcom died Thursday morning at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hall were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Malcom First United Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Gerald F. Brown, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, officiating. Organist was Joan Schneekloth. Pallbearers were Ronald Baltisberger, Wilbur Baltisberger, Lloyd D. Hall, Max Olson, Norman Reedy, and Franklin Reimers. Burial was at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. Hall's name may be made to the Trinity Lutheran Church and may be left at the funeral home.

The daughter of William and Matilda Reimers Baltisberger, she was born July 12, 1897, north of Malcom. She attended rural school. On April 2, 1918, she was married to Russell C. Hall at Malcom. Following their marriage, they farmed near Brooklyn and later operated produce stations at Montezuma and Blairstown. In 1935, the couple moved to Malcom and operated the Phillips 66 gas station there. Following her husband's death in 1951, Mrs. Hall was employed by the Malcom school lunch program and later with the Guy Cooper Produce Co. She was baptized and confirmed at the Trinity Lutheran Church.

Survivors include two brothers, Harvey W. Baltisberger of Marshalltown and Carl O. Baltisberger of Des Moines. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and an infant brother.
