Katherine Hall rites Tuesday

Katherine Mulbrook Hall, 79, formerly of Altoona and Ankeny, died Sunday afternoon, Oct. 21, at Friendship Manor, where she had lived for the past 10 years.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hall were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Revs. Peter and Allyson Sawtell, co-pastors of the Newburg-Chester United Church of Christ—Congregational, officiating. Music was provided by Kathleen Hueffner, organist, and Gordon Vanselsaar, vocalist. Pallbearers were Gail Hackney, Richard Mulbrook, Floyd Mulbrook, Robert Richards, Charles Richards and John Russell.

Burial was at the Mitchellville Cemetery.

The daughter of Jacob and Emma Lightfoot Mulbrook, she was born May 6, 1900, near Kellogg. She attended Kellogg schools and graduated from Newton High School in 1921. She later taught in rural schools near Sully and Newton.

She was married to Robert Hall in Newton, and the couple farmed near Altoona until retiring in 1964 when they moved to Ankeny.

Mrs. Hall was a member of Ankeny Congregational Church.

Survivors include her stepson, Lloyd Hall of Altoona, and five sisters, Mrs. Ola (Margaret) Gildersleeve of Grinnell, Mrs. Clifford (Elizabeth) Russell of Oskaloosa, Mrs. William (Julie) Marshall of Newton, Mrs. Lawrence (Carrie) Benjamin of Greeley, Colo., and Mrs. Rex (Odetha) Hackney of Gifford. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; five brothers, Don, Frank, Wendell, Roy, and Richard Mulbrook; and one sister, Mrs. DeMarise Richards.
