

Rites held for Mr. Halloran <sup>March</sup> 27, 1975

The Mass of the Resurrection was held at 9 a.m. Wednesday at the Assumption Catholic Church in Topeka, Kan., for John T. Halloran, 82, of Waterloo, who died Sunday at St. Francis Manor here. Burial was at the Catholic Cemetery at Hoyt, Kan. The vigil service was held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Brennan Funeral Home.

John Halloran

rites pending <sup>3/29/75</sup>

John T. Halloran, 82, of 125 East Arlington, Waterloo, died Sunday afternoon at St. Francis Manor here.

Funeral services are pending, and friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The son of John Joseph and Bridget McManus Halloran, he was born at Hoyt, Kan., on Sept. 17, 1892. He was married to Erma F. Sizer July 30, 1917, at Kansas City, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Halloran had lived near Topeka, Kan., and Chicago, Ill., most of their life, and also had lived in Valpariso, Ind., and Denver, Colo. For the past eight years Mr. Halloran had made his home in Waterloo.

He was a member of Pipefitters Local No. 208 in Denver, and during the Chicago World Fair was recognized for his work with the fountain display at the Firestone building.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. LeRoy T. (Rita) Kaiser of Rte. 1, Grinnell; a son, John A. Halloran of Van Nuys, Calif.; and five grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife Erma on Oct. 6, 1953, five brothers and four sisters.