

H-R OBITUARY 1-13-58

PAUL DONALD HALTERMAN
(Contributed)

Paul Donald Halterman of 803 Sixth Avenue passed away suddenly New Year's Day about 5:15 p.m. after suffering a heart attack. He was born the son of Charles and Lillian Brown Halterman on May 9, 1907 in Grinnell, Iowa.

Mr. Halterman attended the local public schools and graduated from Grinnell high school. He took an active interest in athletics and enjoyed watching the local teams participate in athletic contests. While he was in high school he played on the basketball team and was captain during his senior year.

On June 20, 1931, he was united in marriage to Iona Pohlman in Grinnell by the Rev. William Welsh of the Baptist church. They lived in Newton for several years and later in Minnesota, where Mr. Halterman serviced hatcheries as a poultry flock supervisor. For seven years he owned and operated Paul's Hatchery at 805 Commercial Street in Grinnell. For the past several years, Mr. Halterman has been a supervisor and field man in southeast Iowa for the Iowa Mutual Tornado Insurance Association.

Mr. Halterman attended the Baptist church and was active in Masonic affairs. He was initiated into Hermon Lodge in 1943 by Sharp Lannom who was then worshipful master. He also belonged to the Royal Arch Masons in Grinnell, the Oriental Commandery No. 22 in Newton, the King Solomon Council No. 20 in Marshalltown, and the Za-Ga-Zig Shrine in Des Moines. He was also a member of the Grinnell Elks Club and the Odd Fellows Lodge. Mr. Halterman had many friends and neighbors in Grinnell and will be greatly missed by his business and farm friends.

He enjoyed children and greatly loved having them in his home. He took great delight in helping his brother play the role of Santa during the holiday season. He is survived by his wife, Iona, and six brothers and sisters: Mrs. Lola Rohrich of Inglewood, Calif.; Raymond of Philadelphia, Pa.; Marion of Grinnell, Charles of Newton, Maurice of Grinnell and Mrs. Juanita DeJong of New Sharon, as well as many nieces and nephews.

Services for Paul Halterman were held at 2:00 p.m., Jan. 6, at the Smith Funeral Home. Masonic graveside services were led by Sharp Lannom and Hermon Lodge No. 273 of Grinnell. Burial was in Hazelwood cemetery.