

Marvin Bros. - 30 - 1100²⁰¹¹ Word was received yesterday by Geo. H. Hamlin that his brother, Charles E. Hamlin died at his home in Pasadena, Calif., Wednesday morning, of consumption. The deceased will be remembered only among the older residents of this city, having left here about twenty years ago. He was born here in 1858 and engaged in the furniture business here for some years afterwards engaging in the same business in California till compelled to give it up about a year ago on account of failing health. A wife, three daughters and a son survive him.

CHARLES