

BC March 22, 1989

IVA ELLEN WOLF HAMMER

Iva Ellen Wolf Hammer, 96, of Montezuma, died March 15, 1989, at the Senior Home in Montezuma.

The daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Wolford Wolf, she was born Nov. 10, 1892, on a farm near Deep River. She attended school in Deep River and was graduated from Palmer Barbar School in Cedar Rapids and the Iowa School of Beauty Culture in Des Moines.

She was a barber in Lynnville and then owned and operated Iva's Beauty Shop in Montezuma for several years.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Ray Hammer; seven brothers: Tom, Clate, George, Clark, Raymond, Benny and Gilbert; and two sisters: Dessie Marie Wolf and Leota Troxler.

Iva is survived by several nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Graveside service was March 17, at Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River, with Rev. Thomas Pickles from United Methodist Church of Montezuma, officiating. Casket Bearers were Bob Wolf, Lowell Wolf, Darryl Wolf, Mark Wolf, Newell Wolf, and Bert Ross.

Arrangements were made by
Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma

Senior Home.