Eva F. Hansen rites Friday

Eva F. Hansen, 69, of west Sixth Ave., Grinnell, died Tuesday noon at the home of her sister at 117 Eighth Ave.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday at the Grinnell United Methodist Church, with the Rev. James P. Russell, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Wayne Wasta of the Cresco United Methodist Church officiating.

Organist will be Kathleen Heffner, and pallbearers will be John Burgess, Arnold Kratz, John Thomson, Ronald Courson, Justin Watson, and Kent Hansen.

Burial will be at the Sheridan Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Otto and Catherine Schafer Broders, she was born Jan. 7, 1908, in the Sheridan community. She was graduated from Grinnell High School in 1924 and attended Grinnell College. She served as secretary to then-college President John S. Nollen for eight years.

On March 9, 1935, she was married to George C. Hansen at Waterloo. The couple had one son. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen lived in Belmont from 1937 to 1958 where they edited and published the Belmont Independent. From 1958 to 1966, they lived in Decorah, where they owned and operated the Cliff House restaurant and motel. They lived in Cresco for 10 years before coming to Grinnell in 1976.

Mrs. Hansen was past worthy matron of Beulah Chapter No. 47, Order of Eastern Star; a member of the White Shrine and the Cresco Women's Club; and a trustee of the Belmont Hospital. She was a member of the Grinnell and Cresco United Methodist churches and was a member of the women's societies of the churches.

Survivors include her husband, George; her son, Geoffrey Hansen of Cedar Rapids; a brother, Elmer Broders of Grinnell; and a sister, Mrs. Ella Schultz, also of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Lester and Russell Broders; and a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Baustian.
