The son of Christopher and Amelia Schultz Hasselbrink, he was born Feb. 6, 1900, near Laurel in Jasper County. He attended rural school and later in Kellogg.

He worked on farms in the Kellogg area until his marriage to Bertha Florence Lemke on Jan. 15, 1922, in Kellogg. The couple farmed northeast of Kellogg until 1936 when they purchased thier own farm northwest of Grinnell.

Mr. Hasselbrink had served on the local school board and as a township trustee. He was a 50-year member of the Gilman Masonic Lodge and a longtime member of the Grinnell Elks Lodge, the Victor Grange, and the Democratic party, which he served as a Jasper County committeeman. He was a member of the Grinnell First Baptist Church and had served as a deacon.

He and his wife retired from farming and moved to Grinnell in 1979.

He is survived by his wife, Bertha; two brothers, Albert of Newton and Louis of Kellogg; and three sisters, Amelia Ebert of Kellogg, Elsie Reed of Kellogg and Lela Kooistra of Newton. He was preceded in death by two half-brothers, Andrew Lunt and John Lund, as well as three brothers, Carl, William and Henry Hasselbrink.
