

4 R News Feb 2 1967

Ames Rites Held Wednesday For Donald Hayward

Funeral services for Donald Hayward, 42, of Grinnell, were held Wednesday afternoon from the Christian church at Ames with the Rev. Roy Key, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Hayward died Sunday, Jan. 29, at a Minneapolis, Minn., hospital.

Vocal music at the services was provided by Charles Fullhart, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Fullhart at the organ. Flower bearers were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. James Paschall.

Pallbearers, all nephews, were Darrell Thako, Ronald Meyers, Robert McCall, John Woolley, Michael Hayward and James Turner. Burial was in Resthaven cemetery in West Des Moines with Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

He is survived by his widow, Beatrice, four children, Richard of Los Angeles, Calif., and Donna Bea, Gary and Linda, all of Grinnell.

Also surviving are his mother, Mrs. Emma Hayward of Moravia, Iowa; two brothers, Clyde Hayward of Des Moines and John Hayward of Salem, Ore.; and four sisters, Mrs. Joe (Marian) Harvey of Marshalltown, Mrs. Arthur (Janet) J. Fox of Moravia, Mrs. Fredrick (Margaret Ann) Schwabe of Schenectady, N. Y., and Mrs. Howard (Catherine) Rehbein of West Des Moines.

He was preceded in death by his father.

Mr. Hayward was vice-president and sales manager of the Stadium division of Miracle Equipment Co. in Grinnell and had moved to Grinnell two years ago. Formerly he had lived in Des Moines, Clear Lake, and Ames, where he was a member of the Christian church and Elks lodge.