

7-28 Mrs. Harry Heald, 1915

Word has reached Grinnell of the death of the wife of Harry Heald, Grinnell '92, a son of A. R. Heald of this city. The body is being brought to Grinnell for burial from Montana, where Mr. Heald owns a large ranch near Bellevue, and will reach here tomorrow night. More definite word as regards the plans for the funeral has not been received. Many friends here will receive the news of this bereavement with sincere regret. Death leaves motherless two little girls, one three and one six years old.
