

Aletha Heinle

H - R Sept 6, 1977

Aletha Heinle, 89, of 400 Park St., Grinnell, died early Wednesday morning at Green Roof Resort near Hackensack, Minn.

Funeral services are pending at the Smith Funeral Home, where friends may call for additional information.

Aletha Heinle services held

H - R September 10, 1977

Aletha Heinle, 89, of 400 Park St., Grinnell, died early Wednesday morning of an apparent heart attack at the Green Roof Resort near Hackensack, Minn.

Funeral services for Mrs. Heinle were held at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Sam Reaves, pastor of the Grinnell Assembly of God Church, officiating. Organist was Naomi Reaves, and pallbearers were David Dale, John Dale, George Dale, Andy Heinle, Gene Heinle, Raye Heinle, Todd Heinle and James Talbott. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery....

The daughter of George and Bertha Ellen Grivs Grimm, she was born July 26, 1890, at Van Meter. Following the death of her mother, she came to Grinnell and was raised by her aunt and uncle, Della and Newt Tyson. She attended rural school southeast of Grinnell and later attended Grinnell High School. She worked for McIntosh Mercantile and Spurgeon's

On Nov. 5, 1913, she was married to George Henry Heinle at Marshalltown. The couple farmed in Pleasant, Malcom and Chester townships before moving to Grinnell in 1930.

Mrs. Heinle is survived by her children, Harold and Paul Heinle, both of Grinnell, Keith Heinle of Port Angeles, Wash., and Kenneth Heinle of Oskaloosa; 14 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one son, Fredrick; three daughters, Betty Jean Dale, Myrna Heinle and an infant daughter; a brother, Phil Grimm; and a sister, Della Hagenlock.

George