Malcom, Iowa, April 7.—Special: Andrew Heishman, a wellknown resident of Sheridan township, Poweshiek county, died Sunday morning at Oakdale at the age of 56 years, 11 months and 17 days. The body was brought to Sheridan church where funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon by Rev. W. S. Kight, of Des Moines, a former pastor of the Sheridan church, assisted by the present pastor, Rev. Mr. Moore. There was a large attendance of neighbors and friends.

The deceased was born April 12, 1868, in Hardy County, West Virginia, and his parents moved in his youth to Indiana. After a short residence there, they again moved to Sheridan township, Iowa, where he made his home until his death. He is survived by his stepmother, four brothers and three half brothers.

A number of years ago Mr. Heishman joined the Christian Church of Madison township, later transferring his membership to the Presbyterian church of which he was a faithful member. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge of Malcom, the members of which assisted in the funeral service. Mr. Heishman was an exemplary representative of a prominent family and his decease is deplored by many friends.
