

Duane L. Hendricks, 52

Duane Lee Hendricks, 52, of Sully, died on Thursday, March 20, 1997, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were held on Monday, March 24, at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church in Sully. Pastor Robert Waters officiated. Organist Gertrude Schrell accompanied vocalist Kim Schnell on musical selections "Wind Beneath My Wings", "How Great Thou Art", and "The Lord's Prayer". The flower committee consisted of Wanda Stewart and Linda Zegers. Honorary casket bearers were Don Moes, Dave Benson, Dick Northrup, Gary VanderKamp, Leon Hendricks, and Carroll De Vries. Casket bearers were Mike Little, Larry Stewart, Doug Watson, Dave Van Rees, Darrel Zegers and Kenny Hoksbergen. Burial was in the St. Andrew's Cemetery in Sully.

Duane Lee Hendricks, the son of Freeman and Wilma Berkenbosch Hendricks, was born January 22, 1945, in Newton. Duane had lived in the Sully area all his life. He graduated from Lynnville-Sully High School and went to mechanics school in Omaha, Neb. On September 24, 1965, Duane was united in marriage to Sharon Kay Van Cleave at Montezuma.

To this union, two children were born, Andrea and Dustin. For twenty-five years, Duane has been a parts manager, the last twenty years for Wes Finch Auto Plaza. He was a member of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church and the Lions Club. He loved baseball and had played fast-pitch softball for twenty-five years and had also been a baseball coach. He was the assistant coach for the 1988 Lynnville-Sully High School AA State Champions. Duane also enjoyed hunting and fishing. Duane will be remembered for his love of his family, especially his grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his father, Freeman Hendricks.

Duane is survived by his wife, Sharon; their children, Andrea A. and her husband, Dave Allen, of Ankeny; and Dustin L. Hendricks and his wife, Emily, of Grundy Center; his mother, Wilma Jensma of Monroe; two grandchildren, Allyson Kay Allen and Joshua David Allen; and two brothers, Delmar D. Hendricks of Red Hook, New York; and Larry G. Hendricks of Reasnor.

Memorials may be made to the Lynnville-Sully High School Baseball Team, the American Cancer Society or St. Andrew's Lutheran Church.

Garden Chapel Funeral Home in Pella was in charge of the arrangements.

MR March 26, 1997

Duane Hendricks

Duane Lee Hendricks, 52, of Sully died Thursday, March 20, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted Monday, at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church in Sully, with burial in St. Andrew's Cemetery. The Garden Chapel Funeral Home of Sully was in charge of arrangements.

The son of Freeman and Wilma Berkenbosch Hendricks, he was born Jan. 22, 1945, in Newton. He was a graduate of Lynnville-Sully High School and attended mechanic's school in Omaha, Neb.

He was married to Sharon Kay Van Cleave Sept. 24, 1965, in Montezuma.

Mr. Hendricks worked for Wes Finch Auto Plaza as a parts manager for 20 years. He was also the assistant coach for the 1988 Lynnville-Sully High School Class 2A state champion baseball team. He was a member of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church and the Lions Club.

Surviving are his wife; a daughter, Andrea Allen of Ankeny; a son, Dustin of Grundy Center; his mother; two grandchildren; and two brothers, Delmar of Red Hook, N.Y., and Larry of Reasnor. He was preceded in death by his father.

MR March 27, 1997