

Miss Hendrickson rites held

April 3, 1958
Hazel Hendrickson, 75, of Wauworth, Wis., a former resident of Poweshiek County, died March 27 at the Willow Field Nursing Home in Delavan, Wis.

Funeral services were conducted March 28 at the Wauworth Funeral Home, with graveside rites conducted March 29 at the Haven Cemetery. The Rev. Damon R. Reese of the Calvary Baptist Church of Ginnell officiated.

The daughter of Jens and Serina Stangolaad Hendrickson, she was born Jan. 25, 1905, in Madison Township near Brooklyn. She attended rural school at the age of 11, she had polio. She kept house for her mother and father until their deaths, moving in 1958 to the Christian League for the Handicapped at Wauworth where she lived for 22 years.

She was a member of the Madison Church of Christ, later transferring her membership to the Calvary Baptist Church here.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Howie (Stella) Lang of Brooklyn. She was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Ellen Lang, Ruth Belland and Louise Phillips; and two brothers, Henry and Jesse Hendrickson.