Mrs. Hendrickson rites held

Mildred Hendrickson, 86, died Monday, Aug. 25, at the Mayflower Home Health Care Center.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Grinnell United Church of Christ-Congregational, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad officiating. Organist was Deanna Acrea. Pallbearers were her grandsons, Mark Hendrickson, Larry Jensen, Richard Herzberg, Daniel Porter, Kent Porter and Samuel Porter. Burial was in Chester Township Cemetery.

Memorials in Mrs. Hendrickson's name may be made to the Mayflower Home or to the United Church of Christ-Congregational.

The daughter of Edwin and Sarah M. Warren Dare, she was born on Oct. 29, 1899, in Chester Township. She attended rural school and graduated from Grinnell High School in 1916. She taught for a few years in rural school and at the former Chester No. 5 High School.

She was married to Lester J.

Hendrickson on Aug. 28, 1923, at her parents' home. The couple farmed in the Chester area until 1948 when they moved to a farm east of Grinnell. They moved into Grinnell in 1975. Mrs. Hendrickson had been a resident of the Mayflower Home since 1984. She was an early leader in 4-H and was a former member of the Chester Congregational Church, a current member of the Grinnell United Church of Christ-Congregational, and a member of Chapter B.M. of P.E.O., Pi Rho Lambda and the Tuesday Club.

Survivors include her children, Lorna Herzberg of Grinnell, Wayne of rural Grinnell and Jewel Porter of Mason City; eight grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and a brother, Harlan Dare of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1984, her parents, three grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and four brothers and sisters, Arthur and George Dare, Ada Iverson and Camilla Evans.
