

Mrs. Jas. Hesley Dies At Home Near Searsboro

1935

(By a Staff Correspondent)

Searsboro, Ia., Jan. 15, Special: Mrs. James Hesley passed away quite suddenly Thursday morning after many months of suffering at her home east of town. She had passed her sixtieth year. She was married to James Hesley in March 1891, and spent her married life on the farm east of town. Two daughters were born to this union, Mrs. Tom McGuin of Searsboro and Mrs. Oliver Cook of near Ewart. Beside her husband and daughters she leaves three stepchildren and several brothers and sisters to mourn her loss.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Paul Hadley Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the Friends church, of which she had been a member for a number of years. Burial was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.
