Elinor Hilderbrand, 76

MR March 20, 1996

Elinor Rose Moore Hilderbrand, 76, died suddenly Tues., March 12, 1996 at the Senior Home in Montezuma, Iowa.

Funeral services were held Fri., March 15, 1996 at the Christian Church in Deep River, with the Rev. Carroll Johnson, Belle Plaine, officiating. Mrs. Verla Van Dee was organist and Mrs. Betty Snook was soloist with music selection of "Under His Wings". Honorary casket bearers were Doren Dale, Francis Williams, Richard Cable, Elvin Huffman, Dale McWilliams, Newell Keller, Leland Winegarden and Richard Geiger. Casket bearers were Lester Williams, Kenneth Keller, Kenneth Wallace, James Williams, Rex Cheney and Dean McWilliams. Burial was in Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River.

Elinor was born Feb. 9, 1920 at Barnes City, the daughter of Lloyd and Hazel (Williams) Moore. She joined the Barnes City Christian Church as a child. After her marriage she moved her membership and came into the fellowship of the Deep River Christian Church. On Nov. 29, 1939 she was united in marriage with Ned Andrew Hilderbrand at the Little Brown Church at Nashua, Iowa. To this union was born one daughter, Dixie Lee. After their marriage they moved to a farm at the south edge of Deep River, which they soon bought. Together they farmed and raised livestock. Elinor also helped Ned with their auctioneering business. She served her church as pianist and Sunday School Superintendent for many years. She liked music, enjoyed sewing, reading and bowling and was always ready to go someplace. She was always game to trying something new.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband in 1977; and brother, Dwight Moore.

Elinor is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Dixie and Don Cable of Rochester, Minn.; and other relatives and friends.
