

H-R September 19, 1996

Harold Hinshaw

Harold L. (Bill) Hinshaw, 83, of Kellogg, died Tuesday, Sept. 17, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton of a heart attack.

Services will take place Thursday, Sept. 19, at 1 p.m. at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home in Newton with the Rev. Robert Hinshaw, pastor of Ashton Chapel, officiating. Burial will be in Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg. Memorials may be made to the Kellogg Historical Society.

A life-long resident of Jasper County, he was born Dec. 18, 1912, in Kellogg, the son of Irvin L. (Ted) and Izora L. Benson Hinshaw, and attended Kellogg High School. He was a tool and die maker at Midwest Manufacturing in Kellogg and also at the Rock Island Arsenal in Illinois and at Dye-O-Matic in Montezuma.

He was married Jan. 2, 1935, at Laurel, to Sara Jeanne Auten.

He was a member of the Kellogg Methodist Church, National Campers and Hikers Association and Modern Woodman Lodge. For the past several years he also had wintered at Brownsville, Texas.

He is survived by his wife, Jeanne Hinshaw, Kellogg; one son William L. Hinshaw, Marion, and one daughter Judy L. Cooper, Kellogg; seven grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; one son Mike; one grandson, Donald Hinshaw; four sisters and one brother.

Harold Hinshaw

Harold L. Hinshaw, 83, of Kellogg died of a heart attack Tuesday, Sept. 17, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home in Newton, with the Rev. Robert Hinshaw of Ashton Chapel officiating. Burial was in Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg.

The son of Irvin L. "Ted" and Izora L. Benson Hinshaw, he was born Dec. 18, 1912, in Kellogg. He attended Kellogg High School and was married to Sara Jeanne Auten Jan. 2, 1935, in Laurel.

Mr. Hinshaw worked as a tool and die maker at Midwest Manufacturing in Kellogg and later at the Rock Island Arsenal in Illinois. He also had worked at Die-O-Matic in Montezuma.

He was a member of the Kellogg Methodist Church, the National Campers and Hikers Association and the Modern Woodmen Lodge.

He is survived by his wife; one son, William of Marion; a daughter, Judy Cooper of Kellogg; seven grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Mike; one grandson; four sisters and one brother.

Memorial contributions in Mr. Hinshaw's name may be made to the Kellogg Historical Society.

H-R September 25, 1996