

Roy Hinshaw, Former Kellogg Resident, Dies

— 1935

(By a Staff Correspondent)

Kellogg, Ia., Sept. 27, Special:

Roy Hinshaw, 57, former resident of this place, died at his home in Des Moines Tuesday morning of last week, following a several weeks' illness of heart trouble. Funeral services were held at the Dunn Funeral Home there Thursday afternoon and burial was made in Glendale cemetery.

He was born here December 21, 1877, the son of Washington and Mary Hinshaw, and was united in marriage to Miss Clara Cook of Carlisle about 13 years ago. He was formerly employed by the International Harvester Company of Des Moines.

Surviving relatives include his widow, two sisters, Mrs. Lulu Stubbs of Davenport and Mrs. C. C. Phillips of Des Moines, and two brothers, I. L. Hinshaw of this place and Leo Hinshaw of Des Moines.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hinshaw, Mrs. Clarence Hammer and small daughter, Colleen, and I. L. Hinshaw of this place, and Mrs. David Springer of Grinnell were among the out-of-town attendants at the funeral.
