

J. Hockenbury's 12-3-1932 Funeral Held

The funeral services of the late Julian Hockenbury were held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hockenbury, 431 East street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 conducted by Rev. Robert Inglis of the Congregational church assisted by Rev. E. M. Vittum. Two songs, "I am Frae, Frae My Hame" and "Just As I Am," were sung by Mrs. Everett Martin of Mitchellville. Burial was in Hazelwood cemetery.

Julian Hockenbury was born in Des Moines, Iowa, June 21st, 1908. He graduated from Grinnell high school in 1924. After completing his high school studies Julian followed the occupation of a printer in California and in Iowa. About a year ago he opened the Print-craft Shop in Grinnell.

In the brief remarks of Mr. Inglis, he spoke about the beautiful side of life and to remember that side of the life of Julian. His devotion to his mother was ideal. He was always so kind and helpful to her in the home.

The pall bearers were Harry Ritter, Avery Adkins, Donald See, George Brown and his two brothers Don and Kenneth Hockenbury. The funeral was largely attended by friends and neighbors of the family.

"Of the two brothers, Don is