

Chloie Hockey, 85 (WALTER)

Chloie V. Hockey, 85, of Montezuma, died Friday afternoon Oct. 30, 1998 at Grinnell Regional Medical Center in Grinnell.

Her funeral was Sunday, Nov. 1 at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma. Officiating was the Rev. Burr Bryant of the United Methodist Church in Montezuma.

Casket bearers were Wayne Gould, Sean Gould, Kevin Gould, Francis Freeborn, Sheldon Freeborn and Everett Freeborn, Jr.

Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery in Montezuma.

Mrs. Hockey was born Dec. 18, 1912 near Centerville to William David and Anna Matilda (Daniels) Freeborn. She grew up in the Ewart, Malcom and Montezuma areas.

April 15, 1933, she married Walter H. Hockey in Davenport.

Mrs. Hockey was a homemaker and worked as an operator for the Montezuma

Telephone company. She was also a Cub Scout Den Mother, an avid fisherman and spent many hours sewing, crocheting and gardening.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Walter; a son, Gary Hockey on July 28, 1998; two sisters, Zella Mickels and Cecil Probasco and four brothers, Loyd, Everett, Pearlie and Lester Freeborn.

She is survived by one daughter, Lynne and her husband, Wayne Gould of Brighton; four grandchildren, Beth Ann Hockey of Upper Darby, Penn.; Suellen Hockey of Venice, Calif.; Sean Gould of Florissant, Mo. and Kevin Gould of Norfolk, Va.; two great-granddaughters, Alanna and Tara and one brother, Cleland of Fairfield.

Memorials may be made to Grinnell Regional Hospice or Poweshiek Home Health Care.

MR November 4, 1998